“The Management and Resolution of Disputes” Under the 2017 FIDIC Contracts

OVERVIEW

The 2017 FIDIC Contract Conditions has made it a condition that the Parties (Employer & Contractor) are to select and establish a Full Term Dispute Avoidance Board (DAAB) close to the Commencement of the Contract and suggest within 28 days of the Contract Award

The DAAB may be one or three persons agreed by the Parties but must be “independent and impartial” being paid equally by both Parties

The 2017 DAAB Agreement and Procedural Rules are much expanded upon those of the 1999 FIDIC Contracts and the course is designed to give all participants a thorough understanding of the procedures that apply as well as the responsibilities of the Parties and the Adjudicator(s) As usual with ECV courses there will be extensive use of work exercises to determine how the DAAB process operates including the procedures that relate to Dispute Avoidance, Site Visits and Dispute Decisions

The World Bank and many other MDB’s have adopted these Contracts
