“The Management of Contract Claims ” Under the 2017 FIDIC Contracts

OVERVIEW

With all FIDIC contracts there will be Claims. This training course is designed to provide practical assistance to those working with the 2017 FIDIC Contract Conditions in the management of Claims either by the Contractor or the Employer

The 2017 FIDIC Contracts are substantially different from the 1999 Contracts when dealing with Claims. The procedures in giving Notices and preparation of a “fully detailed Claim” are explained also with reference to “time bars” The 2017 Contracts require the Employer to be treated in the same manner as the Contractor. The Engineer is given greater powers in accessing claims where he is required to act in a “Neutral” manner between the Parties. The Engineer is required to consult with both Parties in an endeavour to reach agreement. With no agreement the Engineer is to issue its determination on the Claim. If either Party be dissatisfied with such determination it may proceed to Dispute

This course provides a clear understanding of the complex procedures and deals with assessment of Extension of Time and Payment Claims

The World Bank and many other MDB’s have adopted these Contracts
